Albany Savings Bank,

Albany, Nov. 2 1887

Hon. James S. Kimball

Director of U. S. Mints
 Washington D. C.

Dear Sir;

This Bank, of which I am a Trustee, has made several fruitless attempts to procure from the U. S. Mints at Philadelphia new ten cent pieces and new five cent nickels - the supply being just exhausted or coinage discontinued whenever we have sent.

It has occurred to me that possibly without putting yourself to too much trouble you might be able to inform me when our Bank might send to Phila. for such coins with a prospect of success.

Remain Yours Very Truly
